

Analizing Multifaceted Challenges and Crafting Solutions for Africa's Workforce Crisis

Adverse effects of covid-19 pandemics has affected employment negatively across the genders as seen in the sharp bounce in 2020. Recovery programs for the African economies can help bring back normalcy and solve unemployment issues

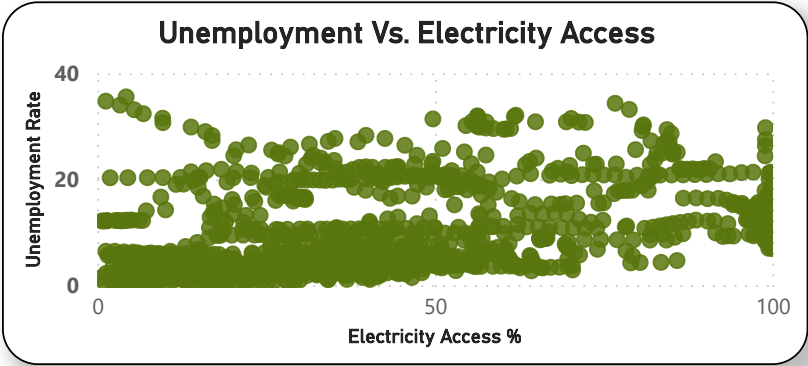

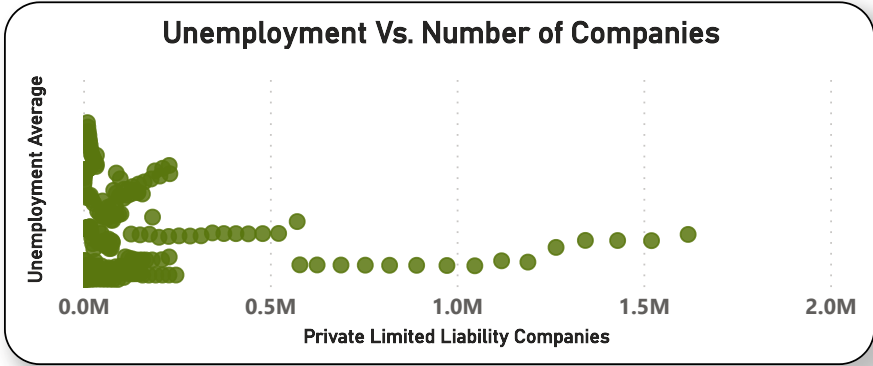

Total Countries
53

African countries can increase expenditure on education as higher investments lead to less unemployment most of the times

It is clear that the more limited liability companies are registered the lower the unemployment. African governments can create enabling environments for private LL companies to thrive and thus reduce unemployment

African sub-saharan countries have higher unemployment rates on average. International organisations can focus more on these economies to reduce unemployment in Africa

